

The Alliance for Responsible Mining (ARM) is pleased to confirm that:

Saskia Shutt Designs

with ID:

BE30003

Is now officially part of the ARM Membership. This membership structure has been designed to ensure the long-term sustainability of ARM's broader mission to promote responsible artisanal and small-scale mining (ASM):

Support ASM organizations, and foster the adoption of responsible environmental, social, and governance practices. We work to create supportive environments for the formal inclusion of ASM in the global economy. ARM establishes voluntary standards for responsible production and trade, helping to build responsible supply chains.

The Alliance for Responsible Mining is a nonprofit organization based in Envigado, Colombia, identified with ID 900.225.197-3.
